My Dear Sirs,

Your letter, rec'd, your draft was paid long ago & I held it as my receipt, Now Mr Chapman I told you to draw on me some 6 wks before you did I acknowledge my many transgressions & most seriously beg your pardon for so trying your patience. But the whole of it was not done intentionally & but through carelessness & thoughtlessness I mean it when I ask your pardon

(2) I may say that in the future you may draw on me for account due when I return & is not wanted, & your Draft will be honored & paid Will you ship me on that understanding?
I try to call your attention to a Coin Holder as spoken of in enclosed circular I should like to receive a testimonial from you.

Yours &c N. H. Douley
As regards that pc returned, I told you the truth in my last The pc is identical with one before me now & is common The pc is worth nothing to me except 50 or 60 cents & then I don't want it. LeRoux's Cut is more & a great many more of them are also more.

Donley C. P. Apr 22/92

My Dear Sir,

I have much pleasure in enclosing a sample Coin Holder, of my own invention. The advantages it possesses over any other way mounting Proof & any Fine Coin can be seen at once. It allows the piece to be fully seen on both sides, without the possibility of its being touched. The piece is also well protected from the action of the atmosphere & Gas. The Coin can be removed from the holder by two turns of the hand. I should be pleased to receive a testimonial from you as to its merits for publication in a circular to the Brotherhood of Gemsmen next week. I enclose list of the sizes I can furnish at once. They can be made of any desired thickness or size. I should be pleased to receive your orders.

For Rabbits up to 4 do not send any unless in extremely fine or fine condition; 4 to 8 the best you have in stock, I want none of the Canadiana pair you sent me but I know of a friend of mine who does. ^{He} has informed him that I have them. I expect he will take quite a number. This will save sending many back.

There are a few of the Hard times tokens sent I want. Will you take one or two of my rarities off my hands at auction cost. As one or two of those sent are in better condition than mine for instance

My Dear Sirs,

You wonder why no word has been received from me? Well I will tell you. It's just as I told you in my former letter I'm been too ill to attend to anything. My many things have gone by unattended to because of my sickness. When I opened this a/c, I did so in good faith as all indications pointed to absolutely Cash transactions, thus I was taken ill. I had to go ^{to} several noted Specialists & was treated ~~money~~, and all this took up the money I had saved. But still I had every evidence of catching up, but expenditures unexpected have also cropped up ^{and} taking all in all I have kept you waiting much to my sorrow ^{and} most assuredly unintentionally I know I have wronged you by the delay and ask your pardon therefor but under the circumstances I could not help it

Howevr I am most surely to blame for not returning the coins I did ^{not} wish to keep, long ago, but truth compels me to say that after I've finished my day's work I am in no condition to write or to get them together to send on. I'm also too compelled to be away from home a great deal of my time, ^{and} this too has contributed to cause delay. I am truly surprised that you have treated me as considerately as you have ^{and} I am very thankful you have although my treatment would not seem to indicate it. When writing you at different times, I have fully expected to be able to remit at the time stated, but when that time has arrived so many things have stepped in to prevent & make it impossible for me to keep my word. The coins I did not wish to keep were originally held as I said - for one or two friends who had left their orders with me for their own pieces. ^{and} I had hoped they would take them. Now My Dear Sir, If I have caused you any loss by this undue retention I am willing to stand good for it. ~~And~~ I do pray that you will hold on to your patience with me a few days longer, - I hope no longer than the last of this month - ~~And~~ I will be able to cancel every obligation to you. I have only one other airt that is now ^{due} ~~and~~ has overrun the same as yours ~~And~~ that is Mr Strigman's of Lancaster. However with a little patience I'll be O.K. My business will call me to N. York in a few days, ~~And~~ I am going to buy + stop in P and call on you. ~~And~~ ^{And} then you can lecture me to your hearts content. I was much surprised to learn of your Louis Death ~~And~~ I can devoutly sympathize with you for I lost my mother only a few months ago. Hoping you will pardon me.

I am Most Cordially Yours,

Your letters have all been received while I was away from home hence the long delay in answering. I have a large amount of money due me, but it has been impossible for me to collect any more than enough to meet the running expenses of my

My Dear Sirs.

Just arrived home from a

My silence has not been indifference but incapability.

I will certainly remit the balance just as soon as is possible. If you do not believe me, and if you think your chances will be improved by bringing action against me, you can do as you wish.

I know it looks strange to you, but facts are facts nevertheless. ^{My} when I am able I will pay without any coercion or force.

I was in Harrisburg Pa. April 18th and had hoped to get to Philadelphia, but expect to make it in a short time

I'm not ashamed to meet you for I am going to pay the $ as soon

I expected the pass in Sale would cost me least $5.00

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec 23rd', 04.

S. H. & H. Chapman,
PHILADELPHIA, PENNA.

Dear Sirs:-

Yours of the 21st', at hand, and the contents, prove the assertions contained in my former letter.

You say you would not execute such an order as I gave you.

You have within the last two years, executed exactly two such orders, for which the Cash ^{was} forwarded, outside of the amount that stood so long. To prove my points, I have copies of the telegrams, and have your receipts for the checks sent in payment for those orders.

The truth would suit you quite well, indeed. Your statement that you would not execute such an order from any one, is a bold mis-statement of the absolute facts-to put it mildly.

You have done it, and are doing it all the time, to my certain knowledge, and you have done it for me. I don't mind your refusing to do it for me, if you will tell the truth about the matter, and not misrepresent the situation.

You say the last goods you bought for me, you had to wait for payment three years. The last goods I bought from you, were on just such telegrams as I sent you the other day, as I have the proof as stated above. I am gentlemen more sorry than I can express in a letter, the fact that I had to make you wait so long, but I can assure you it was all unexpected at the time of ordering, and unpreventable.

I am out of the City a great portion of my time, otherwise my order would have been sent in sooner, accompanied with a check.

Have you any Rarity 7 or 8 hard times tokens, or any Bridge Tokens of Canada, If so state number and price. Yrs W. H. Donley. W. H. Donley

Dear Sirs:-

Yours of the 21st, at hand, and the contents, prove the assertions contained in my former letter.

You say you would not execute such an order as I gave you.

You have within the last two years, executed exactly two such orders, for which the Cash forwarded, outside of the amount that stood so long. To prove my point, I have copies of the telegrams, and have your receipts for the checks sent in payment for those orders.

The truth would suit you quite well, indeed.

Your statement that you would not execute such an order as I gave you, is a bold mis-statement of the absolute facts, and is wholly

You have done it, and are doing it all the time, to my certain knowledge, and you have done it for me. I don't mind your refusing to do it for me, if you will tell the truth about the matter, and not misrep-

-resent the situation.

You say the last goods you bought for me, you had to wait for payment three years. The last goods I bought from you, were on that telegram as I sent you the other day, as I have the proof as stated above. I am gentleman more sorry than I can express in a letter, the fact that I had to make you wait so long, but I can assure you it was all unexpected at the time of ordering, and unavoidable.

I am out of the City a great portion of the time, otherwise my order would have been sent in sooner, accompanied with a check.

Have you any Rarity V or B hard times lately? Mr. W. H. Dancy of Canada, is so near my door and price. Yrs W. H. Dancy.
